

BH

MONICA TORRES

Pro Triathlete

Monica Torres confesses to having practiced sports at a young age, participating in ballet, volleyball, karate, tennis before getting into triathlon. Encouraged by friends, she began to work professionally in triathlon in 2006.

In 2010, she won numerous races and reached a meteoric rise that led to a fourth place finish in the ITU World Duathlon, and was the highest-ranked duathlete in the Philippines.

Monica's degree in Sports has aided her in competition. She is on the Philippine National Duathlon and Triathlon team and has been featured in industry magazines.

STATS

2011

1st Filipina Elite, Ironman 70.3 Philippines, Camsur
 2nd Overall Women, Port Dickson International Triathlon, Malaysia
 2nd Overall Women, Port Dickson International Sprint Triathlon, Malaysia
 1st PCL Immuvit Tour of Clark Cycling race, Criterium, Road Race and Team Time Trial categories
 1st Unilab Bike United, Individual Time Trial and Team Time Trial categories
 1st PCL Immuvit Final Leg Cycling Race, Individual Time Trial and General Classification categories
 1st Powerade Duathlon 2nd Leg, Alabang
 1st Men's Health All Terrain Run, Nuvali Laguna
 1st 2011 K-Swiss ITU Subic International Triathlon, Overall Age Group Category
 Multisport Magazine Most Outstanding Athlete, 2011 K-Swiss ITU Subic International Triathlon
 2nd Powerade Duathlon 3rd Leg, Nuvali Sta. Rosa

2nd Pharmaton MVP Unleashed Challenge
 (see pharmatonmvp.com)

3rd Chevrolet New Balance Power Run, Bonifacio Global City
 3rd 15km Anson's Mardi Gras Run, McKinley Hill, Taguig
 3rd 25km Vision in Motion Run, Bonifacio Global City

2010

1st Filipina Elite, Ironman 70.3 Camsur, Philippines
 2nd Overall Women, Port Dickson International Triathlon, Malaysia
 3rd Elite Women, ITU Asian Duathlon Cup, Thailand
 1st Overall Women, 1st Leg Powerade National Duathlon, Alabang
 1st Overall Women, 2nd Leg Powerade National Duathlon, Alabang
 1st Overall Women's 15km, Run To Read, Fort Bonifacio

